

Listening to NPR on Google Home

Below are all of the NPR-friendly commands available on Google Home. Keep this near your device for easy reference.

GENERAL COMMANDS

“Ok Google, play NPR.”

Stream your local public radio station - live.

“Ok Google, play the latest news from NPR.”

Hear the latest 3-minute newscast, updated every hour.

“Ok Google, play [any public radio station’s call letters].”

Stream live from any public radio station by saying the station name or call letters, i.e., “Ok Google, play WAMU,” or “Ok Google, play KCUR.” To find any NPR member station in the country, check out npr.org/stations.

“Ok Google, play [podcast name] podcast.”

Play the latest episode of a specific podcast. Be sure to say “podcast” after the show name.

WITH NPR ONE ENABLED

“Ok Google, talk to NPR One.”

Hear a flow of 2-minute stories from NPR.